TARGET CUSTOMERS	Individuals looking to reduce screen time, break their social media addiction and improve mental wellness through minimising digital habits.	Adults who want to use their phone less and limit distractions that eat into their free time.	Interested in Science and Education. Students looking to study uninterrupted. Ages cited as between 18 -44 year old. https://www.similarweb.com/website/forestapp.cc/#demographics
PRODUCT OR SERVICE PRICING	Free with several in-app purchases and subscription models.	Free but uses ads as a 30 second blocker to deter users from using their screen.	Basic version is free with ads. Subscriptions or one-time purchase for Pro version available.
GENERAL MARKETING STRATEGY	Marketed as a holistic health app, with multiple methods for maintaining good health through mindfulness.	Marketed as a "digital wellness assistant" meant to empower the user to "take back control" over their social media use.	Simple engaging product that offers gamification of use of time and social incentives with real-world environmental impact.
ONLINE MARKETING STRATEGY	Website www.natureunlock.app with explanation and screenshots of features. Essentially a larger listing advert but with its own space & domain.	Just a listing on the Apple Store, helpful description of features and benefits. Descriptive instructional screenshots.	Word of mouth and virtual rewards https://medium.com/@heiko.damask_86475/how-did-the-forest-app-do-it-673a5976f7b
STRENGTHS	Many features: Meditation mode, breathing exercises for stress. Holistic health app alongside unique and powerful screen time reduction feature.	Immediate effects, non-intrusive interruptions create deterrents to encourage the user to do other things.	Impactful Simple engaging design/brand Gamification/useable
WEAKNESSES	Too many features (e.g. Sounds for deep relaxation) could dilute product's main purpose. App unlock feature requires going outside to photograph nature - not always feasible.	Only offers this feature of blocking apps. No website for the application explaining it in detail or bringing in interest. Only available on iOS.	Paid tier might limit adoption Almost 50% bounce rate https://www.similarweb.com/website/forestapp.cc/#traffic
COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE	Our app allows the user to contribute/connect to the outdoors passively, without as much effort. Our product has more concise, uncomplicated goals.	Ours gamifies screen time reduction, encouraging the user to compete with themselves in reducing their screen time. Gives rich data insights into their habits. Offers real-world impact too.	Ours is free. Plants trees locally (more tangible benefit? less CO2eq?) Doesn't require an account or virtual currency to plant trees. Ours is simple and effective.
